

Meadowood to Present Third Juried Art Show

The third Juried Art Show at Meadowood will be open March 30, 31, and April 1, 2012. The show is open to the public free of charge. Original paintings by accomplished Bucks County artist Ranulph Bye (1916-2003) will be featured. Jurors are Michael Adams, signature member of the Philadelphia Water Color Society, Instructor at University of the Arts, and former president of the Greater Norristown Art League and Susannah Hart Thomer, signature member of the Baltimore, Pennsylvania, and Philadelphia Water Color Societies. Artwork from participating artists will be for sale. A portion of the sales will benefit the Meadowood Benevolence Fund.

Artists are invited to submit for consideration work that was not shown in Meadowood's previous two shows. They may bring entries to the Strasburg Auditorium in the Schultz Community Center at Meadowood on Tuesday, March 27 from 9-11 AM or 5-7 PM. The fees are $10 for the first entry and $5 for additional entries with a maximum of two original entries and five sales portfolio items. There is no fee for Meadowood residents. Entries not selected for the show may be picked up Thursday, March 29 from 10 AM – 12 PM. The 20 percent commission on sales will benefit the Meadowood Benevolence Fund. $1,000 in cash prizes will be awarded.

Please call (484) 991-1025 or email jlaverdure@mwood.org with any questions or to receive registration information. You may also download registration information at www.meadowood.net.

Art Show Hours

Wine and Cheese Opening Reception to meet the artists: Friday, March 30, 2012 from 6-8 PM

Saturday, March 31, 2012: 11 AM - 4PM

Sunday, April 1, 2012: 1-4PM

Awards ceremony: 3:30 PM Sunday